Prior to 1925 there was only one typist (pay Rs.35-2-65) in the Income-tax Office. In 1925, when the I.T. establishment was revised on the recommendation of Mr.Boag, a stenographer's post was added to the establishment. His pay was fixed at Rs.35-2-65 plus a shorthand allowance of Rs.15/-.

In connection with the retrenchment campaign, the Assistant Commissioner reported in September, 1931, that as the stenographer himself had not got a full day's work, the services of the ordinary typist were being utilised otherwise, and, that as the work of the Income-tax Office could be managed without the ordinary typist, his post might be abolished. The recommendation was approved by the Resident.

The Assistant Commissioner now recommends that the shorthand allowance of the stenographer may be raised from Rs.15/- to Rs.25/-, as a temporary measure, with effect from the 1st July, 1932, to the end of the current financial year. The grounds on which this increase of pay is asked for are :-

(i) The present incumbent of this post possesses high qualifications in shorthand and typewriting, and

(ii) His work has increased on account of the lowering of the minimum taxable income and the abolition of the typist's post.

(4)

As regards point (i), the Assistant Commissioner states that the clerk has passed the Higher Grade Examination in shorthand and the Advanced Grade in typewriting.

The expenditure under "Taxes on Income - Bangalore" is provided under Demand No.17, Taxes on Income, of the Govt. of India Budget Estimates and not in the Assigned Tract Budget Estimates. The Hon'ble the Resident has no power to re-appropriate funds from one Demand to another. Demand No.17 is under the control of the Central Board of Revenue, and if an application for additional funds is made to them, they can reappropriate from savings available elsewhere under this demand.

No. CR 97. 1 of 216

Office of the
Collector and Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax,
Civil and Military Station, Bangalore,

Dated the 21st June 1932.

FROM
G.H. Cooke, Esq., M.C., I.C.S.,
COLLECTOR AND ASST. COMMR. OF INCOME-TAX,
CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION,
Bangalore.

To

The Secretary to the Resident and Commissioner of Income-tax,
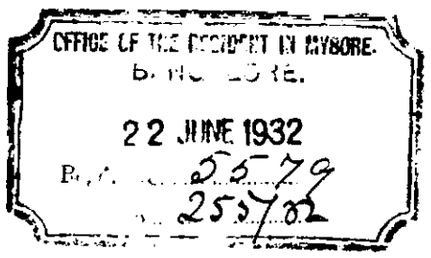
Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.



Subject.—

SIR,

I have the honour to ~~state~~ that the Stenographer of the Income-tax Office draws a shorthand allowance of Rs.15/- per mensem, which is also the allowance given to the other shorthand clerk under my control, viz., the clerk in the Munsiff's Court. I however find that the clerk in the Income-tax Office possesses Government Technical Examination qualifications and has passed the Higher grade in Shorthand and the Advanced Grade in typewriting. In the Madras Presidency, stenographers are allowed in addition to their pay as clerks, an allowance of Rs.25/- for possessing shorthand higher grade qualification and another allowance of Rs.10/- for typewriting advanced qualification.

The clerk in the Income-tax Office is also in charge of the Military Salaries section in addition to his duties as stenographer. The work of this section has increased by about 50 percent on account of the lowering of minimum taxable income. The business cases will for the same and other causes be twice as many as in past years. As there is no regular Typist sanctioned for the Office, all the typing work in Military cases and the fair copying of appeal orders have also to be carried out by the same clerk.

The clerk is also otherwise qualified having passed in Book-keeping, Banking and Theory & Practice of Commerce and is an undergraduate, and the Income-tax Officer reports that his work is very satisfactory.

I beg therefore to recommend that this clerk's short-hand allowance may be raised from Rs.15/- to Rs.25/-, as a temporary measure, with effect from 1st July 1932 to the end of the current financial year. The necessity for the continuance of the increased allowance may be considered at the beginning of next year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Collector & Asst. Commr. of Income-tax.
